Judge Robertson will not withdraw from the contest unless President Garfield requests. Robertson will stick, and Garfield will not retreat, and both will win.

The funeral of the late Matt H. Carpenter, will take place in Milwaukee, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be in state at the court house from Saturday afternoon till Sunday.

The widow of the immortal John Brown, is in very poor circumstances, and is in Washington seeking some place under the government in which she can earn a living. President Garfield should not delay in giving her a suitable place. There are many of them, and if some one who has no special claim on the government must be removed, let that removal be instantly, and the widow of old John Brown provided for.

The present dead-lock in the Senate is not only embarrassing to the administration, but it is becoming a dishonorable piece of work. The confirmations should be made without delay, so that President Garfield will not be at all embarrassed in that respect. After the nominations are properly disposed of, the Senate might humiliate itself by remaining in session until next December, and the public would pay but little attention to its doings.

The Hon. Hiram Price, of Iowa, has been appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in place of Thomas M. Nichol, who found the office too much for him. Mr. Price is sixty-five years old, and for many years has been president of the State bank of Iowa. He served in the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses, and became quite a conspicuous member. His appointment is said to be an excellent one, and therefore a great improvement on that of Nichol.

We conclude that Senator Joe Rankin never appeared to a better advantage in the Senate than when he rose to object to the appointment bill being recalled from the Governor for correction. He did just right. It is better to have an extra session of the Legislature, than to allow such a shameful piece of work as the appointment bill to go on the statute books. Once in a while Joe amounts to something, and in this case he amounted to considerable, and was even wiser than Senator Kelly.

Colonel Frank H. Putney, who is the present Assistant Secretary of State, and has been for the past four years, and two years previous was Governor Lindington's private secretary, has been elected county judge of Waukesha county. The Colonel is one of these self-possessed, thoughtful, bright young men, that one delights to meet with. He has an excellent education, is well read in the law, and beside that has the manliness and deep practical sense that will insure Waukesha county a first rate judge for the next four years. The vote of the county is quite close, and notwithstanding the Colonel ran against a very popular Democrat, he was elected by over 200 majority.

It is probably generally known that the Republicans throughout the country have not a great amount of love for George Gorham, who is a candidate for the position he once held—that of clerk of the United States Senate. Three years ago in California, he was a sort of a Democratic-Greenbacker, but now he is back in the Republican ranks and wants office. This being the case, it has been suggested that the Republican party is very much in the condition of the boarding-school boys who were asked by the teacher what they were willing to give up during Lent, and one little fellow promptly answered "hash." If the Republicans were to be asked what sacrifice they would be willing to make in order that the work of the Senate might go on, a million voices would answer "George Gorham."

It has been reckoned that Senator Mahone is worth two million of dollars, but a Southern writer claims that this is a gross mistake. He then goes on to speak of the famous little Senator, against whom all the Democratic batteries are made, in this fashion: "Some persons who know him well informed me that he was not really to be rated higher than $100,000. He owns a fine house at Petersburg, Va., has four Alderney cows in his back yard and a flock of pheasants. He cultivates these birds for their eggs. Hens eggs are not to his taste, which is eccentric and dainty. When a railroad president, at a big salary, he used to travel around on a hand-car with a demijohn half as big as himself. That vessel was supposed to contain 'true Democratic principles,' but it did not. It was mineral water, of which he partook copiously for a severe kidney complaint."

"Our Carrier," has been elected mayor of Chicago again by over 7,000 majority. Nearly every paper in Chicago, opposed Carter Harrison, and yet he was triumphantly elected. No man in Chicago ever got more severely written up than Mr. Harrison. To hear one side of the story, he prostituted his official power, bartered his patronage, and bowed his neck to the disreputable classes of the city. On the other hand we learn that Mr. Harrison is one of the best mayors Chicago has ever had, and that very many of the Republican business men of the city favored his election. Mr. Harrison can not be so low a political character as his opponents make him out to be, or else in a Republican city like Chicago, where business men have much at stake, and are solid financially and quite intelligent, they would combine their strength and organize their influence, which would insure his defeat. We regret, however, that Mr. Clark, one of the best men in Chicago, was not elected, because he belongs to that class of men who honor any place they are called to fill.

JUSTICES COLE AND CASSADAY.

These eminent jurists and worthy gentlemen, were elected Chief Justice and Associate Justice respectively, of the Supreme Court, without opposition, the entire vote of the State being cast for them. This is as it should have been. No two men in the State are better qualified for service on the Supreme Bench than Chief Justice Cole and Associate Justice Cassaday. They stand in the foremost rank of able lawyers, and besides that they have high personal probity, many accomplishments and peculiar fitness for the important offices to which they have been elected. It is an honor to the bar of Wisconsin and to the people as well, that these officers were lifted above politics, and the two independent candidates unanimously elected.

It is not possible at this time to give the full judicial vote of the State, but it will not fall short of 150,000.

Judges Cole and Cassaday received the unanimous vote of Rock county which foots up about 5,000.

In commenting on the result of the judicial ticket, the Madison Democrat speaks as follows: "So far as can be learned, and it is doubtless true all over the State, the candidates for justices of the supreme court have received the entire vote of both parties. In this city, Cole, for chief justice, is only fifteen votes below the total vote cast, and Justice Cassaday is only five votes behind Cole. This seems to be true elsewhere, and the candidates may safely conclude that they have received all, or nearly all, the votes cast by all parties. They thus continue in office with the approval of the whole people. The people of Wisconsin may well feel proud of their highest court and its record. May it be ever so."

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

There were a good many curiosities about the municipal elections which took place throughout the State on Tuesday. In Manitowoc, a Democratic town by a big majority, the Republicans swept the city and county. Smart, Republican candidate for county judge, was elected by 700 majority. The Republican candidates for mayor and treasurer, were also elected, and strange as it may seem, not a single Democratic alderman was elected in that intensely Democratic city. In La Crosse, another Democratic city, the Republicans elected their mayor, but lost the council. It is said that party lines were obliterated in La Crosse, and on the mayorality, the issue was temperance. The Democratic candidate was a brewer, and a mass convention put up Smiley, a Republican, who was elected by 188 majority. This is the most honorable thing La Crosse has done for some time.

But in Racine, which should be a Republican city, the Democratic mayor is elected by 204 majority. The city council is a tie with a Democratic mayor to cast the deciding vote. In Fond du Lac, the Republicans did a poor day's work on election day. The vote was light which proved disastrous to the party. The Democratic ticket was generally elected, and the Democratic candidate for county judge, also. Kenosha, which should be Republican, elected a Democratic ticket almost throughout. In Oshkosh, the Democrats got nearly all there was on the city ticket, but by small majorities. Mr. J. B. Powers, who had held the office of city clerk for sixteen years, was beaten by a Democrat by 8 votes. The Republicans have the council, however, by 11 to 7. Railway Commissioner Turner, was elected mayor of Portage, by 347 majority. It seems to be no trouble for Jack to get a majority when he runs for office.

The Republicans in Milwaukee did some good work on election day. Colonel Hamilton, the Republican candidate for circuit judge, received a majority in the city of 1,632, against Judge D. W. Small, a copper-headed Democrat who has held the office for twelve years. To defeat Small merits no small amount of praise. Judge Mann, the Democratic candidate for county judge, was re-elected by 1,202 majority over ex-Congressman Hazelton. The new council will stand 22 Republicans and 17 Democrats; and the county board of supervisors will remain as before, Republican.

There were seventeen county judges elected in the State, and politically they are divided as follows:

Sanborn, Dane county, Democrat.
Lamoeroux, Dodge county, Democrat.
Leal, Eau Claire county, Republican.
Perkins, Fond du Lac county, Democrat.
Collorius, Jefferson county, Democrat.
Martin, Kenosha county, Republican.
Cameron, La Crosse county, Republican.
Smart, Manitowoc county, Republican.
Priehard, Rock county, Independent.
(No opposition).
Simonds, St. Croix county, Democrat.
Marshall, Chippewa county, Republican.
Putney, Waukesha county, Republican.
Kelley, Washington county, Democrat.
Mann, Milwaukee county, Democrat.
Gary, Winnebago county, Republican.
Golden, Walworth county, Republican.
Gardner, Wood county, Democrat.
This makes eight Republicans and eight Democrats, with Judge Priehard of this county, as Independent. He is a Republican, but was called out irrespectively of party and received no opposition.

A STRIKE.

Special to the Gazette.
CHICAGO, April 7.—All the conductors and drivers on the West Side railways, struck to-day for 20 per cent higher wages. There were from 600 to 800 strikers, but the people generally sympathize with the strikers.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Special to the Gazette.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—The signal officers report another storm in the Indian Territory, which is passing eastward. There was another ineffectual attempt to-day to proceed to executive business in the Senate. Vance made a long and bitter speech. Allison, of Iowa, says the Senate will remain in session all summer.

It is reported that Whitelaw Read of the New York Tribune will succeed President White at the court of Berlin.

THE PRESIDENT.

He is not fretting Over the Inaction of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 6.—A gentleman who called on the President this evening found him in a very contented frame of mind, as if unaware of the fact—if it be a fact, as represented in many quarters—that he has had a great quarrel in his hands. His visitor asked if he was in accord with the Republicans of the Senate in their policy of inaction. He said, in reply, that the action of the Senate was a thing with which he had nothing to do, and he had been careful not to give any one a right to say that he was seeking to influence the Senate in any way. Senators and others who had called had asked for an expression of his views, and he had not hesitated to say that, if the ally, by the reason of whose vote the Republicans had been placed in control of the committees, thought a continuance of the present struggle necessary for his own protection, he would continue it for a time. He was, however, being made aware by new evidences received daily that early executive action by the Senate upon some of the appointments was a pressing necessity. Some of the district courts were closed and all business in connection with them was suspended because there were no judges. The President's attention was called to the reports which are published, to the effect that Senator Conkling had influenced Republican Senators to continue this deadlock, in order to gain time to arrange his plans for a campaign against the administration. The President replied with some emphasis that he knew that was not the case, and that Republican Senators were certainly not influenced in their action by any such motives.

THE HONORED DEAD.

Preparations in Milwaukee for the Reception of the Remains of Senator Carpenter—An Impending Cortage Anticipated.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—The special committee to arrange for the Senator Carpenter obsequies, met at Judge Butler's office at 10 o'clock this forenoon with J. B. Goodrich as chairman, and D. E. Andrews secretary. There were present David Vance, William Lynde, Ed. Sandersons, J. W. Vanchaick, E. B. Simson, T. J. Blair, G. W. Hazelton, W. A. Collins, W. H. Ebbett's, W. A. Hamilton, E. A. Calkins, H. J. Fitzgerald, E. W. Hincks, A. R. Butler and J. B. Goodrich.

After calling the meeting to order the telegram received from Washington were read by Mr. Sanderson, and that gentleman stated that, in conversation with Mr. Gordon and Alex. Mitchell, they expressed the opinion that the remains of Mr. Carpenter on their arrival in this city ought to be conveyed to the court house and there lie in state until Sunday afternoon.

This idea was opposed by some of those present while others upheld it. At last, upon the statement of Senator Simpson, that it would be more convenient for those attending from out of town, a motion was made by Mr. Sanderson, as follows:

That, upon the arrival of the remains in this city over the St. Paul road at about 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon next, the Sheridan Guard and Light Horse squadron escort them to the court house, where they be allowed to lie in state until Sunday at 2 o'clock, at which time they be conveyed to Forest Home cemetery and there interred.

The motion was carried. Senator Simpson stated that at least 100 members of the Legislature would attend the funeral, and it was decided to meet them at the chamber of commerce and there supply them with badges.

G. W. Hazelton moved that Governor Smith be selected to respond and make appropriate remarks on the occasion of the surrender of the remains to the Milwaukee delegation at Chicago on Saturday morning. The delegation from Milwaukee will leave the city on the 4:30 train over the St. Paul road Friday afternoon. The remains will be met at Chicago at about 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and thence escorted to this city. Upon their arrival at the St. Paul depot they will be met by the Sheridan Guards, the Light Horse squadron, and such other military and civic bodies as see fit to attend. The escort will move the body in the most direct way to Broadway bridge, thence up Broadway to Wisconsin up Wisconsin to Jefferson, and up Jefferson street to the courthouse. The body will not be exposed to view but the casket will remain closed. No religious service will be held, as that part of the ceremony has been conducted. Only such services as are usual at the ceremony will take place. At least 100 people will visit Chicago to meet the senatorial party in charge of the remains and accompany them to Milwaukee.

EARTHQUAKES.

Seio, April 6.—Occasional shocks of earthquake are still felt. All the open spaces in the town are filled with wounded, many of whom are in a hopeless condition. Many of the dead and wounded are still under the ruins, and the survivors are emigrating in all directions. There are far more victims of the damages in the villages than in the town. Supplies arrive daily, but insufficient to cope with the desolation.

LONDON, April 6.—A telegram to the foreign office states that the authorities of Seio ask for 4,000 tents. Only fifty houses are standing. On all sides cries of distress are heard from the ruins, but nobody dare approach to render assistance. The controller of Seio and family are still under the ruins, crying for succor.

SYRA, April 6.—Continued shocks of earthquake at Seio are destroying the houses injured by the first shock. It is said to be utterly impossible to enter the town.

THE IOWA FASTER.

A Society of Physicians Condemn Those Who Encourage Neg.

IOWA CITY, April 6.—The condition of Miss Hattie Duell remains unchanged. This is the forty-third day of her fast. Her pulse and breathing were about the same as the last two days. The medical society express their disapprobation of the matter in the following resolution passed to-day, although they fail to say what should be done in the matter:

Resolved, That the Iowa City Medical Society view with the deepest regret the present unseemly and disgusting exhibition of the misfortunes of a human being in this city; and that, in our opinion, those who did and abet the prolonged suicide of an insane individual should be held responsible according to the principles of common law.

J. C. SCHRAEDER, President.
S. L. LITTLE, Secretary.
Her brother-in-law, also a physician, at whose home she is living, declares that every possible way except force has been tried to have her leave her fast, but all to no purpose, and that this criticism is harsh and not justified by the facts in the case.

REFORMING CONVICTS.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—Under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., a society was organized to-night to reclaim discharged penitentiary birds. Recently the originators, desiring to reform convicts discharged from the State prison, addressed a circular to various prison officials desiring that the prison inmates on discharge be sent to Milwaukee, that they might be under the influence of the Society members. The opinion has been expressed by some, those in local police circles more especially, that this movement would lead to more harm than good; that it would flood the town with all the hard citizens of the State, and tend to place a premium on vice and crime. A good deal of local feeling has been worked up over the matter.

STURGEON BAY.

MADISON, Wis., April 6.—The Fond du Lac, Portage & Sturgeon Bay Railway Company, capital stock $2,000,000, filed articles of association with the Secretary of State to-day. Their object is to build a railroad from some point in Sauk county, on the line of the Northwestern road, by way of Portage and Fond du Lac to Sturgeon Bay.

SUICIDAL.

MILWAUKEE, April 6.—Charles F. Buchholz, aged 45, a druggist doing business Twelfth and Chestnut streets, committed suicide some time last night by taking poison. Buchholz took poison last night, and almost immediately after swallowing it his family became aware that serious results were promised. Drs. Vertessy and Boding were hastily summoned. They applied the stomach-pump and administered the customary emetics, but all to no avail, as Buchholz died this morning at 3 o'clock.
